FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kans., is the home of the Army Command and General Staff College, the senior tactical school of the United States Army. The fort covers about 6,000 acres (2,400 hectares) on the west bluff of the Missouri River, 25 miles (40 kilometers) northwest of Kansas City. The Army and Air Force operate a military prison, the U.S. Disciplinary Barracks. The fort was named for Colonel Henry Leavenworth, who founded it in 1827.
